
100
Obituaries

ENRIQUEZ: Ludovico "Ludy" Abella, age 64 years, passed away Aug. 30, 1996. He was born at Cebu City, Philippines, and came to Canada in 1994. Ludy was a hardworking father of seven children. He is well remembered by his good set of values toward his outlooks in life. He is considered as a "Daddy" to everybody and is well loved by those to whom he met because of his calm, easy going traits. He was well-known and made many friends throughout his lifetime. He had joined the charitable organization of the Knights of Columbia. He is survived by his loving wife Rufina, daughters Melissa, Elvira, Julie, Estela, and Maricor. Also sons, Vic and Ludovico "Ludsky" Jr., grandchildren Kyle, Kim, Jeth-Jeth, Jai-Jai, Janah, KC, Dina, Alex, Jake, Vanessa and Kathryn. He will be sadly missed by all of this family and friends. A Funeral Service was held Sept. 4, 1996 from Christ the King Catholic Church with Reverend Father John Laszczyk. Arrangements entrusted to the Vancouver Island Memorial Society.
